

Rockdale Landmarks

ROCKDALE, TEXAS POST OFFICE MURAL

The mural in rockdale post office was created in 1939. "Industry in Rockdale" by Maxwell B. Starr in the post office in Rockdale, Texas. Painted circa 1940.

ROCKDALE, TEXAS POST OFFICE MURAL

The rockdale texas post office mural is an an amazing painting that was painted in 1940 by Maxwell B. Starr

This mural is located in the United States Postal Service post office.

This mural shows farmers picking cotton outside in a cotton farm.

The Kay Theater

. After renovating and restoring the building, The Kay Theatre re-opened in 2010, and was recorded as a Texas Historic Landmark by the Texas Historic Commission in 2013.

Today, The Kay Theatre once again serves as a community center, hosting special events, weddings, and music

ROCKDALE, TEXAS Kay Theater

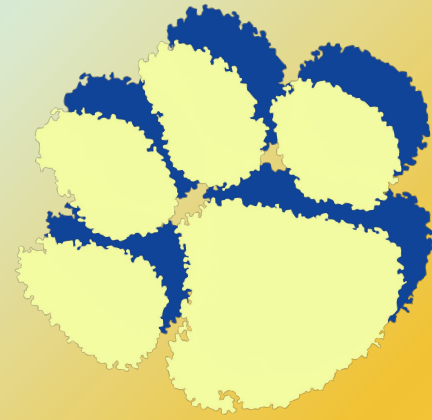

The kay tether is located in 350 N Main St, Rockdale, TX -

The KAY THEATER is used for events wedding and music.

This tether was burned down but then bought and restored in 2010

TIMELINE

1939

Mural Created

1940

Mural
Painted

2004

purchase and restore the long-vacant theatre

2010

The Kay Theatre
reopened