Who is she?

Abby Johnson is an anti-abortionist from Rockdale, she previously worked at Planned Parenthood. Abby has written books and she has a movie that shows her story!

Planned Parenthood

Abby Johnson started volunteering at planned parenthood in 2001 after she saw their booth at a volunteering fair at her college. She worked there for eight years and eventually became clinic director. Abby resigned from Planned Parenthood in 2009 after she watched an ultrasound guided abortion take place.

Where Is She Now?

After Abby resigned from Planned Parenthood, she became an activist who advocates for unborn children. She also founded 2 organizations, And Then There Were None (an organization that supports abortion clinic owners who are leaving the industry) and ProLove Ministries (an organization that houses pro-life projects).
