

Texas Alpha Tau Delta was the first chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in Rockdale. Beta Sigma Phi is an international noncollegiate sorority for women.

The chapter was established in 1979 with eleven members in Rockdale, led by Betty Margaret Ferguson, Malda Burns, and Frances Speer.

The first meeting was held with these original members: Phyllis Marshal, Dee Kellar, Marilyn Eanes, Cindy Pendleton, Judy Jaecks, Lana Finley, Glenda Wiley, Carole Lawson, Ferguson, Burns, and Speer. Meetings were held bi-monthly and they were very active in the community with various service projects.

In 1989, the group progressed to a new chapter, Texas Xi Alpha Delta, continuing to serve the community in any way needed.

In 2005, the group switched to monthly members and progressed to Texas Pi Epsilon. This is the present name of the group which now has thirteen

Members: Michelle Earley, Karen Eckert, Betty Margaret Ferguson, Pam Hammett, Sandy Jones (VP), Rosemary Lawrence (Treas.), Sue Jones, Dee Maines (Sec.), Ellen Luckey (Pres.), Patti Schneider, Pat Walters, Glenda Wiley, and Janet Sheguit. They continue to serve the Rockdale community and schools as needed.
